

SPRING 2015 CONFERENCE – HEALING THE HEART THROUGH FORGIVENESS

PROPHETIC WORDS:

SCRIPTURES:

Joshua 6:1-5, 20

Now Jericho was in a state of siege because of the presence of the Israelites. No one left or entered. And to Joshua the Lord said: “I have delivered Jericho, its king, and its warriors into your power. Have all the soldiers circle the city, marching once around it. Do this for six days, with seven priests carrying ram’s horns ahead of the ark. On the seventh day march around the city seven times, and have the priests blow the horns. When they give a long blast on the ram’s horns and you hear the sound of the horn, all the people shall shout aloud. The wall of the city will collapse, and the people shall attack straight ahead.” . . . As the horns blew, the people began to shout. When they heard the sound of the horn, they raised a tremendous shout. The wall collapsed, and the people attacked the city straight ahead and took it.

Psalms 63:1-9

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah. O God, you are my God — it is you I seek! For you my body yearns; for you my soul thirsts, in a land parched, lifeless, and without water. I look to you in the sanctuary to see your power and glory. For your love is better than life; my lips shall ever praise you! I will bless you as long as I live; I will lift up my hands, calling on your name. My soul shall be sated as with choice food, with joyous lips my mouth shall praise you! I think of you upon my bed, I remember you through the watches of the night. You indeed are my savior, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy. My soul clings fast to you; your right hand upholds me.

Psalms 51:1-4

For the leader. A psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love; in your abundant compassion blot out my transgressions. Thoroughly wash away my guilt; and from my sin cleanse me.

John 4:7-15

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, “How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” (For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.” She said to him, “Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

23rd Psalm

A psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I lack. In green pastures he makes me lie down; to still waters he leads me; he restores my soul. He guides me along right paths for the sake of his name. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff comfort me. You set a table before me in front of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Indeed, goodness and mercy will pursue me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of the LORD for endless days.

Revelation 22:17

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let the hearer say, "Come." Let the one who thirsts come forward, and the one who wants it receive the gift of life-giving water.

WORDS:

My little lambs, you are mine. I have claimed you by my blood shed for you. Do not be afraid. Be at peace. Healing love is my gift to you.

You are my Covenant People, I am your Covenant God. Come always to Me for the power to spread the Good News of My grace present to all who trust in Me. You signed the Covenant with mere ink, I have signed with my blood on the cross.

Go forth rejoicing for My Spirit is with you. Spread the love I have given you.

I delight in your presence this day. I am here to fill you with my grace and my love. Be open to my Spirit and He will pour out His gift upon you. Ask and you will receive for I want to bless you and make you my instrument for the salvation of many.

If you pray my prayer to the Father - remember you ask me to forgive you as you forgive others! I am waiting to forgive you - what are you waiting for?

Let my light shine thru you. I am calling you to bring my people out of darkness. Go forth with the Power of my Spirit, proclaiming My name, setting them free, and healing them.

VISIONS:

Image of flood gates opening and waters pouring forth - all will be covered with the waters of the Holy Spirit's graces.

Image of a golden cross. What is ugly is most beautiful. God showed us that Jesus died on the cross to forgive us. Maybe its not just about our named sins but the spots in our life when we need to be healed by forgiving ourselves or other people. If we can get in touch with what we are most ashamed of and forgive, then we can find the most beauty, joy, and happiness in life because we've found freedom through God's love. Why would we just go around trying to be the image of the golden cross without really getting in touch with what it means? If we put on a cloak without really being the person behind it we are just then trying to draw attention to ourselves by showing off how good we are. What does that accomplish? Does it allow you to join an elite club of do-gooders? Does it buy you God's love? God's love cannot be bought. I believe He came as a baby born in a manger and a crown of thorns on his head because he was showing an example of how He wants us to be his followers. He wants us to be close; the least among us to follow Him.
