

Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word (San Antonio)

The mission of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, is to make the love of Jesus, the Incarnate Word, real and tangible in our world by the promotion of human dignity. The Congregation's Sisters live, minister, and sponsor schools, hospitals, and other direct service ministries in the United States, Mexico, and Peru. In addition to the Vowed Religious members, the Congregation welcomes the presence of men and women Associates who live the Sisters' mission in their personal and professional lives.

The United States Novitiate of the Congregation is located in St. Louis.

In addition, the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word sponsor the following institutions in St. Louis City and County:

Incarnate Word Academy, founded in 1932 as an all-girls Catholic high school, located Bel Nor, a north-county suburb. The college preparatory program provides personal attention to students, preparing them to become self-assured, knowledgeable women who go on to make positive impacts on their community.

Incarnate Word Foundation, founded in 1997 after the sale of Incarnate Word Hospital. Its mission is to provide funding for religious, charitable and educational purposes and to offer programming related to the significant justice and equity issues of today.

St. Elizabeth Adult Day Care Center, founded in 1981 by the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood, O'Fallon. The Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word assumed sponsorship in 2018. The ministry provides a safe, comfortable, wholesome and stimulating environment in six locations for the aged and persons with special needs.

The Sisters also sponsor El Puente Hispanic Ministry in the neighboring Diocese of Jefferson City, MO.

Additional information on the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word can be found on the website: www.amormeus.org.