

LEARN ABOUT Tackling Debt Within Your Budget

Please join us for July's Getting Better with Gallagher Financial Wellbeing educational event!

Experiencing financial hardship and managing debt are stressful topics for many and they often go hand-in-hand. We all experience financial shocks – . It might look like a hefty car repair, medical bill, or even a surprisingly high credit card statement. When this happens, we go into debt to fill the gap and cover the financial urgency. Regardless of the cause, you may end up carrying high-cost debt without a way to pay it down.

Join Gallagher Retirement Plan Consultants and Financial Coaches to learn how to better manage your debt and protect yourself from financial hardship. During this 30-minute session, we'll discuss how you accumulate debt, define long-term financial stability, and develop a plan to manage your debt moving forward. You'll learn about:

- Different types of debt and how to prioritize them
- Debt-to-income ratios
- Debt scenarios you may relate to
