

The National Catholic Committee on Scouting (NCCS) is advisory to the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) and relates to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops through its Episcopal Liaison.

Catholic Scouting

- Builds on the time-honored structure and programs of the BSA – with a foundation in our Catholic faith
- Welcomes youth starting in kindergarten – with programming through high school – and features whole family activities
- Offers more than 50 Religious Activities anyone can use, plus a range of in-depth Religious Emblems programs
- Supports service projects that help young people learn about the value of volunteering and leadership in service of their community, school, Scouting and the Church
